

Wellbeing over the life course: Learning from the British cohort studies

Venue: Room 2.04, London School of Economics, 32 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, WC2A

Date and time: Friday 25 November 2016, 9:45 to 15:30

Agenda

Chair: Heather Joshi, CLS

- 9:45 – 10:00 Registration and refreshments
- 10:00 – 10:45 Introduction Alissa Goodman, CLS & Martina Narayanan, CLS
- 10:45 – 11:10 Tea/coffee
- 11:10 – 13:00 What's new in wellbeing research using cohort studies?
- 11:10 What factors predict child and adult wellbeing?
Praveetha Patalay, CLS University of Liverpool
- 11:30 What makes a successful life?
Nick Powdthavee, University of Warwick
- 11:50 Childhood socio-economic position and adult mental wellbeing.
Mai Stafford, UCL Institute of Epidemiology & Health/Natasha Wood, MRC Unit for Lifelong Health and Ageing at UCL
- 12:10 Effect of childhood bereavement on wellbeing.
Alison Penny, National Children's Bureau
- 13:00 – 14:00 Lunch (provided – Room 1.05, 32 Lincoln's Inn Field)
- 14:00 – 15:30 Optional afternoon sessions will run concurrently - Delegates wishing to attend both will be able to go to the Research Q&A once the Methods and Data workshop has finished.

- 14:00 – 15:00      Option A. Methods and Data workshop with George Ploubidis and Benedetta Pongiglione. (Room TW2 4.02, LSE)
Learn how to use cohort data during a live demonstration in the computer lab.
- 14:00 – 15:30      Option B. Research Q&A with Heather Joshi, Alissa Goodman and Praveetha Patalay. (Room 2.04, 32 Lincoln's Inn Fields, LSE)
Come and ask the experts for advice regarding your research ideas.
- 15:30                End